Hawthorne Valley School to hold Maple Crepe Fundraiser at Maple Leaf Sugaring

GHENT, NY - MARCH 10, 2020: Hawthorne Valley Waldorf School (HVS) will host a Maple Crepe Fundraiser at Maple Leaf Sugaring in Ghent on Saturday, March 21 and Sunday, March 22. This event is part of Maple Leaf Sugaring's family-friendly Open House for New York State’s Maple Weekend.

Attendees at the Open House will learn how maple syrup is crafted and taste the experience! Take a short walking tour, see how sweet sap is made into high-quality syrup, and enjoy French crêpes (traditional thin pancake) drizzled with their fresh maple syrup!

Crêpes will be served from a mobile crêperie, graciously donated for the weekend by the Jansen-Sherman Family. Sweet and savory organic crêpes will be available from 10 AM - 2 PM on both days. All proceeds from crepe sales will benefit Hawthorne Valley Waldorf School.

“We are thrilled to partner with Ben and Veronica Madey at Maple Leaf Sugaring for this fundraiser,” says Linda Park, Hawthorne Valley Community Relations & Development Manager. “We have had a long collaborative relationship with them, being both alumni of HVS and suppliers of maple syrup for several Hawthorne Valley Farm initiatives, and are grateful for all the ways they support the school.”

Maple Leaf Sugaring is located at 93 Dupier Rd, Ghent, NY. For more information, visit school.hawthornevalley.org/events.
